

Lessons for 04-06-20 to 04-10-20

Monday April 6th

1st hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Read the lesson titled shape lesson.

Create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

3rd hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Read the lesson titled shape lesson.

Create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

Middle school art class: Cherokees

Line is an important element in art. There are five types of line by their directional path: vertical, horizontal, diagonal, curved and zigzag.

Read the lesson entitled five types of line by the directional path.

Create your design on a white sheet of paper using the instructions in the document entitled five types of line assignment. When you finish your design take a picture and email it to my school email address. Assignment is due on Friday, April 10.

Tuesday April 7th

1st hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Continue to create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

3rd hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Continue to create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

Middle school art class: Cherokees

Line is an important element in art. There are five types of line by their directional path: vertical, horizontal, diagonal, curved and zigzag.

Continue to create your design on a white sheet of paper using the instructions in the document entitled five types of line assignment. When you finish your design take a picture and email it to my school email address. Assignment is due on Friday, April 10.

Wednesday, April 8th

1st hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Continue to create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

3rd hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Continue to create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

Middle school art class: Cherokees

Line is an important element in art. There are five types of line by their directional path: vertical, horizontal, diagonal, curved and zigzag.

Continue to create your design on a white sheet of paper using the instructions in the document entitled five types of line assignment. When you finish your design take a picture and email it to my school email address. Assignment is due on Friday, April 10.

Thursday, April 9th

1st hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Continue to create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

3rd hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - an element of art that is a two-dimensional area that is defined in some way. A shape may have an outline around it or you may recognize it by its area. Shapes can be geometric or freeform.

Continue to create your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

Middle school art class: Cherokees

Line is an important element in art. There are five types of line by their directional path: vertical, horizontal, diagonal, curved and zigzag.

Continue to create your design on a white sheet of paper using the instructions in the document entitled five types of line assignment. When you finish your design take a picture and email it to my school email address. Assignment is due on Friday, April 10.

Friday, April 10th

1st hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - Finish your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

3rd hour Art 1 and Art 2

Shape - Finish your design on a sheet of white paper using the instructions in the document titled shape assignment. When you're finished with the assignment take a photo and email it to my school email address. The assignment is due on Friday, April 10 Th.

Middle school art class: Cherokees

Line- Finish your design on a white sheet of paper using the instructions in the document entitled five types of line assignment. When you finish your design take a picture and email it to my school email address. Assignment is due on Friday, April 10.